

Cinzano Rosso

Origin : Italy

Appellation : Vermouth 15° Alc.

Tasting : Dark red in colour and delicious flavours. Sweet and fragrant with flavours of citrus and berries. Cinzano Rosso is exciting, rich and daring.

Cocktail Suggestions : Negroni

1/3 Vermouth Cinzano Rosso

1/3 Campari

1/3 Premium Gin

Prepare directly in a highball on the rocks. Garnish with a slice of orange and serve.

: Americano

1/2 Vermouth Cinzano Rosso

1/2 Campari

: Dash of Soda

Prepare directly in a highball on the rocks. Garnish with a slice of orange and serve.

Cinzano Extra Dry

Origin : Italy

Appellation : Vermouth 18° Alc.

Tasting Note : Off dry and an inviting light yellow hue. The flavours are vibrant and alive with notes of aromatic herbs. It's round, carefree and tempting.

Cocktail Suggestions : Casanova

2 oz Cinzano Extra Dry Vermouth

3 Fresh Strawberries diced

1/2 Lime diced

2 teaspoons of castor sugar

Prepare directly in a highball crushing the lime with the fresh strawberries and the sugar. Add ice and Cinzano Extra Dry. Mix and serve.

Cinzano Rosso

Origin : Italy

Appellation : Vermouth 18° Alc.

Appearance

Reddish brown with amber reflections

Nose

Smooth spiced notes followed by dried fruit, dried figs in particular, married with woody, vanilla and sour black cherry aromas

Taste

Initial taste is slightly spiced and dried fruit notes can be tasted; rounded and smooth to the palate, with notes of wood, tobacco and licorice Afterwards it leaves pleasant bitter notes, typical of wormwood, with long lasting and pleasant aftertaste

Bouquet

Orange blossom, rose and cherry

Olfactory family

Woody-floral-fruity

Cinzano Rosso

Origin : Italy

Appellation : Vermouth 18° Alc.

Appearance

Crystal clear with green hues

Nose

Herbal and spiced notes rounded by fruity and muscat memories

Taste

Pleasantly alcoholic, Mediterranean maquis scent coupled with cloves and cinnamon notes followed in the end by a red fruit and wormwood aftertaste

Bouquet

Bergamot, lily, sandalwood, and lavender

Olfactory family

Woody-citrus-floral