

CLAN FRASER

What lies at the heart of every clan is a sense of belonging. Being a part of something bigger and sharing certain characteristics with other. Clan Fraser blended Scotch whisky celebrates a clan that spans not just Scotland, but the world. It's the confidence that this shared sense of belonging brings that allowed the original Fraser from France to settle in the Scottish Borders. It is what then powered their journey across Scotland, eventually taking them to all corners of the globe.

COLOR: Golden Honey

AROMA: Hints, Cinnamon, Vanilla and some notes of raisins

TASTE: Honeyed and buttery structure with a notes of raisins and figs, it's warm, rounded, slightly sweet and deliciously smooth.

ABV: 40%