

Teacher's Scotch

Color : Rich Amber with yellow gold highlights

Nose : A deep and robust maltiness shows through at the very start that is accompanied by a gentle highland peat smoke tang. This full flavour slowly fades to allow the sweeter fruitier flavours of apples, pears and heavy honey maturity to show through.

Body : Full of depth and substance.

Palate : There is a challenging and exciting taste that at the same time is round and warming. This superb flavour is full of rich malts and maturity that slowly fades to a silky rounded texture.

Finish : Well balanced with a clean busy flavoured fullness that ends with a slow fading of flavours.
